Middle Country Public Library receives grant

The Allstate Foundation awarded the Middle Country Library Foundation a $17,500 Good Starts Young grant in support of programs encouraging youth empowerment and volunteerism through the library's Allstate Readiness Series.

The series showcases teen programming that fosters creativity, science, technology, engineering and math-related skills and community engagement. To learn more about the programs in this series contact Kristine Tanzi at 631-585-9393, ext. 230.
